

2019 NURSES OF FAITH WALL OF HONOR

| Person Being Recognized | Recognition Type | Contributor(s) of Recognition | Message from the Contributor about the Honoree(s) |
|--------------------------------|-------------------------|--|---|
| Richard Tetrault | In Honor | Mary Ann Christie | Richard lives a life of service to others with a true dedication of meeting physical, emotional social and spiritual needs. He is a deeply devoted and compassionate man who finds his calling in meeting the needs of the unfortunate. He especially reaches out to the homebound to let them know they are not forgotten. |
| Lorraine Deners | In Honor | Catholic Medical Center's Parish Nurse Program | Lorraine exemplified the CMC mission of giving clients dignity, respect and compassion. She has served numerous populations of the greater Manchester area, meeting all their needs regardless of their economic, social, cultural or financial states. She is respected for her compassion, empathy and infectious sense of humor. |
| Dayle Morhon | In Memory | Catholic Medical Center's Parish Nurse Program | Dayle was a leader with a passion for parish nursing. She helped develop a successful hospital-based volunteer parish nurse program that spread in multiple varied faith denominations in the greater Manchester, New Hampshire, area. The faith-based program she oversaw addressed the spiritual, emotional and physical needs of those served. |
| Joan Reeves | In Memory | Catholic Medical Center's Parish Nurse Program | Joan was vibrant in her love of community nursing and her CMC parish nursing program. She coordinated outreach to parishioners who needed assistance, mind, body and spirit. She cared for others' needs in her quiet, unassuming manner. |
| Katherine Richo | In Memory | Catholic Medical Center's Parish Nurse Program | Kathy was a compassionate nurse. She served as a mentor, educator and advocate to many. She was filled with the Holy Spirit and enriched those she touched with her care and gentleness. |

| | | | |
|---|-----------|--|---|
| Carole Trenblay | In Memory | Catholic Medical Center's Parish Nurse Program | Carole was dedicated to providing health ministry to her parish. She reached out to the homebound. She had a passion for meeting the needs of others. |
| Catholic Medical Center's Parish Nurse Volunteers | In Honor | Priscilla M. Hamilton | They generously give of their time and talents to advocate, to provide health education, to promote exercise, to offer varied screenings, and to pray with the clients they serve. Their dedication and compassion exemplify their passion as faith community nurses as they continue to impact those they care for. |
| Catholic Medical Center's Parish Nurse Volunteers | In Honor | Catholic Medical Center's Parish Nurse Program | Ann Elder; Barbara Goodwin; Barbara Perry; Beth McGurty; Catherin Conley; Catherine Johnston; Cheryl Wolzak; Claudette Tankard; Deborah Haines; Diana Niemann; Diane Rogier-Ziemba; Helen Parreira; Janice Hilson; Jean Sousa; Jeanne Ste. Marie; Jeannine Laroche; Jo Ann Dobrowski; Jo-Ann Brewster; Joline Manseau; Judith Quirk ; Julie Nicoletti; Karen Hubbard; Kathy Albert; Katie Comeau; Linda Green; Lorraine Demers; Lynda Bennett; Madeline Blidberg; Margaret Minnon; Marilyn Nolan; Mary Fitzpatrick; Nan Margelot; Patricia Davenport; Patricia Hill; Pauline O'Reilly; Peggy Rice; Rita Bonner; Sally Lavallee; Sandra Hogan; Sandy Ravelle; Sue Jepsen; Sue Sany; Suzann Corwin; Suzanne Cashin; Virginia Landry; Vivian Villemure |
| Sandi Kimmet | In Honor | Brenda Bauer | In honor of her dedication and service to faith community nursing practice. |
| Katora Campbell | In Honor | William Wilkins Byrde Sumpter | In honor of her dedication and service to faith community nursing practice. |
| Debbie Duke | In Honor | Norma Underwood | As a thank you for the encouragement and prayer support she has given me as an FCN. |
| Debra Rivard | In Honor | Rita Sewell | The FCN community at St. Anthony's Hospital is blessed by the dedication and leadership of Debra. |

| | | | |
|---|-----------|--------------------------------|---|
| CHI Health Faith Community Health Network | In Honor | Ronnette Sailors Nicki Ayer | It has been our deep joy to serve as coordinators of this wonderful network over the years. Their sincere caring and spirituality is so evident, and their dedication to health and wholeness and well-being of congregations and community members is profound. We are blessed to work with you! |
| Jo Sanders | In Honor | Emily M. York | Thank you so much for all your support and encouragement as I began my parish nursing ministry. Love, Emily |
| Donna Oborske | In Honor | Kathleen Blanchfield | A woman who brings God to everyone she meets. |
| Annette Stixrud | In Honor | Deb Fell-Carlson | Annette's passion for faith community nursing is evident in her selfless, tireless devotion to excellence in FCN practice and to her students. She is a mentor to many who cross paths with her, always guiding with love. |
| Karen Wenger | In Honor | Barbara Logan | Karen is an excellent parish nurse, parish nurse teacher and mentor. Being the nurse educator for the Archdiocese of Boston, she has helped many RNs to become parish nurses with enthusiasm, knowledge and kindness. Her own parish has totally benefited from her role. |
| Dr. Susan Mills | In Memory | Donna Callahan | Sue, because we knew you, we have been changed for good. Rest peacefully. |
| Myrna Cassimere | In Honor | Frances L. Hawkins | An, FCN since 2001, she has been an advocate in the community and implemented FCN programs in churches of five parishes in the New Orleans area. She set up programs to increase the knowledge of registered nurses and presented at many conventions and symposiums on faith community nursing. |
| Jo Sanders | In Honor | Sandra Timpner | Jo has always been willing to help and encourage me on my journey through faith community nursing. She is a wonderful example, and a person I aspire to become like. |

| | | | |
|-----------------------|-----------|------------------------|--|
| Ruth E. Williams | In Memory | Marsha J. M. Rozmiarek | Ruth was my parish nurse professor from Viterbio University. She traveled to Green Bay three weekends in Spring '03 and again several years later. She is now with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ! Her encouragement, Spirit-filled life and attitude stay in my heart just when I needed her most. I miss her! She is a blessing! |
| All FCNs | In Honor | Sandra A. Levy | In honor for their dedication and service to faith community nursing practice. |
| Ronnette Sailors | In Honor | Nicole (Nicki) Ayer | Ronnette has devoted her life to sharing God's healing love to others and building the practice of faith community nursing. She is an inspiration to me and many others. I am filled with gratitude for her. |
| Mary Nordtvedt | In Honor | Rebecca Hulden | Mary has nurtured and mentored countless other parish nurses. Her practice knows no bounds. She willingly cares for anyone who crossed her path. She is a wonderful example and credit to our profession. |
| Mary Ann McDermott | In Honor | P. Ann Solari-Twadell | Mary Ann has been a steady supporter of faith community nursing for over 32 years. |
| Trinity Parish Nurses | In Honor | Linda Guebert | Thank you for all you do to serve your faith community. You make a difference! Keep up the work! |
| Maryfran Crist | In Honor | Debbie Pruiem | She is a friend, mentor, and sister in Christ. Her caring, honesty, knowledge and sharing bless all who know her! She is a beautiful blessing to faith community nursing! |
| Janet Headley | In Honor | Cheryl Track | Janet was the first parish nurse I met over 11 years ago. She took my call, listened and reminded me to go slow! She continues to be a wonderful mentor to me. |

| | | | |
|------------------|-----------|--------------------------------------|--|
| Debbie Rivard | In Honor | Cheryl Track | Debbie is caring, creative, a good listener and always open to questions and suggestions. She encouraged me to get my board certification and is supportive in helping me achieve my personal goals. |
| Helen Chigaros | In Memory | Relda Kelly | Helen was the founder of the Kankakee Parish Nurse network. She personified the best in parish nursing. |
| Joy Eastridge | In Honor | Rosalea Sites | You have been a blessing to me, our program, and our church. Your sweet spirit and faith shines through every day. Thank you for 22 years serving as our parish nurse. |
| Beverly Siegrist | In Honor | Faith Community Nurses International | In honor for their dedication and service to faith community nursing practice. |
| Wanda Alexander | | | |
| Andrea West | | | |
| Marabel Kersey | In Honor | Maureen Daniels | In honor for her years of dedicated service to educate faith community nurses both in the US and internationally. |
| Leslie Harrison | In Memory | Georgia Oliver | Leslie was an invaluable member of Westberg Institute team. We miss her warm greeting and smile as she took care of the nurses. |