

2020 NURSES OF FAITH WALL OF HONOR

Person Being Recognized	Recognition Type	Contributor(s) of Recognition	Message from the Contributor about the Honoree
Indiana Faith Community Nurses & Health Ministries	In Honor	Anonymous	Thank you, Franciscan Health!!
Jo Sanders	In Honor	Sandra Timpner	Jo works endlessly to help us reach our goals and stay actively involved in all our churches.
Sr. Renee Cunningham	In Honor	Lanet M. Owen	It is not an easy task to put into words the love and respect I have for Sr. Renee Cunningham and her commitment to faith community nursing. As a Little Company of Mary sister in Chicago, she took an early parish course and repeated a Foundations course once it was established. Her order knew from the beginning. I will always be grateful for our friendship and her enduring commitment to health ministry and the Westberg Institute.

2020 NURSES OF FAITH WALL OF HONOR

Nan Margelot	In Honor	CMC Parish Nurse Program	Nan exemplifies faith community nursing with great care and compassion when serving the underserved and vulnerable clients in the varied parish settings she volunteers at. She always goes the extra mile advocating for clients' needs. Nan helps folks access food, clothing, medication assistance, primary care providers as well assists in navigating social supports in the community. Her zeal for helping others is infectious and her clients appreciate her support.
Susan Jepsen	In Honor	CMC Parish Nurse Program	Sue is beloved by the St. Matthew's SHINE program for seniors where she has volunteered unselfishly for 24 years on a weekly basis. Sue's long-term relationship with those attending the CMC Parish Nurse SHINE program fosters their trust as she educates, advocates and cares for the well-being of her clients.

Sandra Ravelle	In Honor	CMC Parish Nurse Program	Sandy has been a faith community nurse from coast to coast for over 24 years and has travelled on varied mission trips serving others in the mind, body and spirit. Currently she travels over 150 miles round trip a couple of times a month for BP clinics at an inner city, multiethnic and socioeconomically challenged parish. She is faithful in her passion for accessing health care for immigrants in the parish she volunteers at.
Diana Niemann	In Honor	CMC Parish Nurse Program	Diana is a CMC parish nurse at one of the largest Catholic parishes in the area. The monsignor knows he can contact Diana for a variety of different parishioner needs as she always goes above and beyond to support individuals and families facing health challenges. Her expertise and knowledge of community services has helped many over the 20+ years she has participated in this program.
Jason James Stellini	In Honor	Reverend Robert J. Stellini	In honor of Jason

2020 NURSES OF FAITH WALL OF HONOR

Greater St. Louis Parish Nurse Network	In Honor	Westberg Institute staff members	We honor and thank the past and present members of the Greater St. Louis Parish Nurse Network for over 20 years of service and contribution to the practice of faith community nursing. With the mission to "Come together in God's presence to support each other and grow in our ministry of promoting faith-integrated health and healing," this network of parish nurses was among the many to form in the early years of the practice to provide nurturing and support to all nurses taking on this new practice. We honor your work, your history, and your legacy of many parish nurses educated by you to serve congregations in St. Louis and beyond.
Staff members of Westberg Institute	In Honor	Jasmeen Plummer	Thank you for their dedicated service to faith community nurses and supporters around the globe.
